Ishak Bensadok

A front-end web developer

Motivated and detail-oriented MBA graduate with strong technical skills in web development. A quick learner with a passion for coding, I have completed various online courses in programming languages such as C++, HTML5, CSS3, JavaScript, and React. Additionally, I possess strong soft skills in adaptability, leadership, emotional intelligence, and creativity. I am eager to leverage my skills in a challenging role in the tech industry.
